Course End Project 2 - Backend and Database Development Zumba Project

- To build an application to handle data on students learning Zumba, which will manage the enrollment of students in the correct batch and provide appropriate timing for their classes
- Create a Dynamic Web Project in Eclipse and configure Maven
- Create Java Classes for participants and batches
- Create Servlets for participants and batches related to communication
- Create HTML Pages for CRUD operations related to batches and participants
- Perform CRUD operations using database methods using JDBC
- Create JSP Pages for query parameters
- Build and Run the Project on the Apache Tomcat web server
- Package the project as a Jar file using Maven Package Goal